

Leave satellite radio alone! 90% of people are too disinterested in what satellite radio offers to pay what it costs. So commercial stations can raise their commercial levels even higher. Satellite radio will peak out at 10% and FM/AM stations will adjust; without any government intervention.